Come as you are, grow in love, and make a difference.
We become followers of Jesus as we invite, relate, praise, serve, and grow.

Pastor's Ponderings....

Jesus once said, "Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will not enter therein." Many Christian teachers through the centuries have tried to explain the meaning of this verse by talking about how children are naturally trusting, dependent, sweet, caring, and obedient. Now, nothing is wrong with any of these attributes. If we all were more this way, the world would be a better place. But, as a parent, I have to say I find it hard to believe that anyone who argues that children are naturally sweet, obedient, and trusting did not spend much time with children! I'm not even sure they could have been remembering their own childhood with any great accuracy.

In my experience, people have to be taught things like trust, obedience, and empathy. They're not automatic, and some seem never to have learned them, which results in great pain for themselves and others throughout adulthood. Perhaps humility and dependence are more natural states for children, seeing that they are born dependent and powerless; but in our culture at least, both parents and children strive from the beginning to overcome these "obstacles" to "success."

I think Jesus may have had some other virtues in mind when he called us to be like children: belief that all things are possible, simple wonder at the beauty and complexity all around us, a natural idealism that believes that our small efforts really do change the world, being unashamed to ask questions and not having to pretend we already know the answers, and the capacity to be surprised, to play, and to simply be in the moment. We love these characteristics of children, and sometimes as adults we wish we could recapture them in ourselves. But we also tend to think of "growing up" as their gradual diminishment. Idealism, wonder, unpretentiousness, and play don't have to be taught to children; they have to be "un-learned." Sometimes we un-learn these lessons all too well, and with them goes much of the joy and meaning of life.

I often wonder whether God is really pleased with this kind of "growing up." Could it be that Jesus was onto something? It just may be that some of these basic, un-learned, child-like attitudes are important – even essential – to discovering the Kingdom.

Your brother in Christ,

YOUTH NEWSLETTER

Thanks to all of you who contributed to the Youth's yard sale.

While in New Orleans, I visited Trinity United Methodist Church. It no longer functions as a church. It is the headquarters for the Louisiana United Methodist Church Disaster Relief. The building team will be working out of that facility. I, also, visited the Ozanam Inn, a homeless shelter. There are two things that the men there could use: men's pajamas (any size) and twin-size comforters. If you can provide either of these items, the Youth would like to take those items in June.

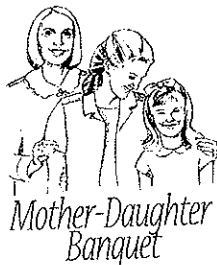

June 6, during the morning worship, a commissioning service will be held for all adults and youth going on the mission trip.

Please mark your calendars. Sunday, June 6, 2010, will be Graduation Sunday. There will be a covered-dish luncheon following the morning service.

If you have someone graduating, please let us know.

Attention Ladies! Circle III will be hosting a Mother's day Luncheon on Saturday, May 8, at 11 am. Please join us for a time of good food, fellowship, and entertainment honoring all mothers.

Bring a picture (or two) of you and your mother as we'll have a table set up to share your special memories.

MOTHER'S DAY BULLETINS

Again this year a Mother's Day Bulletin will be printed in which you are invited to honor or remember your mother on this day. A minimum donation of $1.00 per name is requested and this money will be used by F.R.O.G.S. for their events during the year. You can either fill out a form found in the Narthex or you can fill out the following and return to the church office by May 4.

Trinity UMC Church Council
Minutes - April 11, 2010

Attendance: Rod Simpson, Beth Carroll, Kelly Fie, Rebecca Maser, Christie Edwards, Barbara Gravitt, Linda Merritt, Lois Shields, Becky Weldon, Bill Chinault, Robert Jones, Bill Roberson and Debra Lawson.

Rod Simpson called the meeting to order. Debra Lawson gave the devotion from the Outreach Team. Minutes from the March meeting were approved as printed in The Trinity Times.

Treasurer's Report: In the absence of Dale Holder, the treasurer's report was shared by the Finance Committee. We are 25% of the way through the year and have spent 20% of our budget. We received $2,546.57 less than what was needed for the month of March in the General Fund. We spent more than we received for the month of March in both the General Fund and the MPB. The MPB savings account has been depleted and additional funds were taken from the General Savings account to meet the MPB payment for March. It was a dismal month for the MPB as we only received $1,414.88 of the $5,814.37 needed for our payment.

Team Reports:

Worship Team: Beth Carroll reported that the Worship Team will be meeting on April 28 at 8 pm to plan for the next quarter..

Nurture Team: It was reported that the Senior Banquet was a success and that Bible School planning is underway.

Outreach Team: Debra Lawson reported that money has been given to help with the Haiti and Chile earthquake relief efforts. A conference sponsored Mission Face Off event is scheduled for June 5, the Mission Blitz on October 7-9 and the Spanish Church will be using our building on April 24 for a meal and celebration.

Communication Team: Christie Edwards reported that Trinity is now on Facebook and that Trinity Fest information will be posted as well. Dale Holder continues to make updates to the web site.

Witness (Evangelism) Team: Kelly Fie reported that the team had met on March 29. They are looking at any additional signage that may be needed in and around the church. It was noted that greeters need training and should be stationing themselves by the entrance doors to the church in order to welcome and direct visitors to the sanctuary and to other areas of the church. The ushers should be stationed at the sanctuary doors where they should hand out the bulletins and direct visitors to their seats and make introductions to people seated around them. A job description for ushers and greeters is listed in the church directory for reference if persons are unsure of their responsibilities and posts.

Youth Council: The youth are sponsoring a yard sale on April 23 in front of City Hall.

Administrative Committee

Reports:

SPRC: Kelly Fie reported that $75.00 had been received to help with the minister's trip to New York for the Interfaith Conference. At this time it does not appear that we will be receiving a Duke Intern unless circumstances change.

Trustees: No report.

Lay Leadership: No report

Stewardship Committee: No report (Lay Leadership needs to address the the lack of a chairperson for this committee so the committee can start to meet.)

Parsonage Committee: The committee is looking at trying to correct the leakage problem at the parsonage.

Cemetery Committee: No report

Hooker Endowment: No report

UMMen: The group served breakfast after the Sunrise Service and the "Wood Chucks" will be working up wood on April 24. The men will be funding the cost of the Mother's Day Luncheon in May.

UMWomen: Circle III will be planning the Mother's Day Luncheon on May 8.

Pastor's Report: No report as Pastor David was out of town.

Old Business: Mike Merritt has been asked to speak with the Scout leaders about completing the shelving for the storage of their materials. There is still no stewardship chair. Potholes need to be repaired and the idea of "Fellowship Friends" needs to be addressed by the Evangelism Team when it meets.

New Business: It was noted that the tables under the picnic shelter may need some attention and that the tire swing needs some repair so it can be put back in the playground area.

The next meeting will be May 2 with devotions by the Communication Team.

Respectfully Submitted,
Beth Carroll, Recording Secretary
